Additional Notes: 10:40 pm: When doing an outdoor round, BM found an SNL cart with somethings on it between Bulls patio arches and MLK stage fountain. BM informed SNL standby about it and he took care of it.

The client Bangladesh Student Association in ballroom overstayed their reservation by almost 30 minutes. SNL event tech and BM gave them a reminder at 10:50 pm as they had a lot of their things to be cleared in there but they kept on continuing with their event until 11:20 pm (11:30 pm was their reservation end) and only started clearing their things at that time upon BM's reminder, and kept on taking pictures even after their reservation end time. After 11:30 pm, BM had to give them constant reminders that their reservation has ended, they start cleaning up but then started to take pictures again. C2 told the BM that they have to clean up and leave by 12 am, so BM asked the client to clear their things as fast as possible. One of the guests complained that of the event organizers might have accidentally trashed their purse with valuable items and asked to look in the trash. C2 said that there was not enough time left for that, so BM asked the guests if they could take the trash bags to their home instead of searching on the spot if it was really important. The guests agreed with that and took the trash bags with them. BM made sure that they took the trashbags with them and did not put anywhere in or around the building.

The water fountain by the food court (sensor activated one) that was turned off at the late mid shift somehow turned back on again even with its breaker being off (BM double
