Additional Notes:
Hien Vu from the setup crew traded his late mid shift with Loc Nguyen who showed up in his place.
The chairs in ballroom B were struck upon L4's request.
Rick, the balloon guy, called the BM and gave a heads up that the white Toyota Camry parked in the loading dock is his crew's car and informed that he would be setting his balloons up for tomorrow in front of ballroom and in service hallway without causing any disturbance to the events going on in ballroom A and C.

The client in 2708 (American Sign Language Bulls) told the BM that they did not have any AV tech showing up for their event. BM checked the sheet and when2work to see if there was anyone scheduled bu neither the sheet nor when2work showed any AV tech for the room. BM informed them they do not have one for their reservation but can send SNL standby for any technical issues. They asked if they can have the projector setup which the SNL standby helped with.
When setup went to strike bulls patio furniture, from an event that started in opening shift, there was nothing there, L4 informed on the radio that it had been struck earlier in the day as the event finished early.
The client in Ballroom A (Jamaican Alliance Movement) asked the BM if the width of black pipe and drape in front of the ballroom A storage can be reduced while having only 2 drapes instead of the original 3. BM accomodated the request.
